DEEB, PETRAKIS, BLUM & MURPHY WELCOMES CHRISTIAN C. MATTIOLI TO COMMERCIAL LITIGATION GROUP

(Philadelphia, PA., July 1, 2010) – Deeb, Petrakis, Blum & Murphy, P.C. today announced the addition of Christian C. Mattioli, as an associate in the firm's Commercial Litigation Group.

Mr. Mattioli focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation, bankruptcy and reorganization, employment law, and tort litigation. Before joining Deeb, Petrakis, Blum & Murphy, P.C., Mr. Mattioli worked for an international law firm in Philadelphia as an associate in the commercial litigation department, representing numerous domestic and global clients in both state and federal proceedings. Prior to his legal career, he worked as a communications professional, developing marketing and public relations campaigns for companies such as the EFK Group, Habitat for Humanity International and Mass Consultants and Services in Kuwait.

A graduate of the Temple University Beasley School of Law, Mr. Mattioli was the 2006 ABA National Criminal Trial Advocacy Champion and was named Outstanding Advocate and Best Cross-Examination in the competition. He is actively involved in the community, serving as an at-large member of the Board of Directors for Delaware Valley Habitat for Humanity, a member of the Board of Delegates for the International House of Philadelphia, as well as an Adjunct Instructor/Coach for the Advanced Trial Advocacy Program at Temple Law.
