PROFILE

A partner in the firm, Inez M. Markovich concentrates her practice in the areas of business reorganization and bankruptcy, debt restructuring, commercial finance transactions, creditors' rights, and financial services regulation. A member of the firm's Business Transaction Group, Ms. Markovich has played significant roles representing secured and unsecured creditors in a variety of complex bankruptcy matters, including negotiations, documentation and obtaining approval of debtor-in-possession financings, cash collateral and adequate protection stipulations, Section 363 asset sales, and strategic advice on negotiations and implementation of Chapter 11 plans. In addition, she routinely represents commercial banks, leasing companies and other financial institutions in all aspects of secured lending, asset-based lending, syndicated lending, commercial leasing, credit enhancement transactions, and bank regulatory matters. Inez Markovich is a regular contributor to banking industry publications on issues of commercial finance, leasing, and bankruptcy. She has also delivered presentations on various topics in bankruptcy and debt restructuring to the Turnaround Management Association and The National Business Institute. A native of Volgograd, Russia, Ms. Markovich is a founding member of the Russian-speaking Professionals Network of Greater Philadelphia, and a member of the Forum of Executive Women. A summa cum laude graduate of Arcadia University and a cum laude graduate of Temple University Law School, she is licensed to practice in Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey.
