DEEB, PETRAKIS, BLUM, & MURPHY'S STEPHEN H. FRISHBERG
PRESENTS ESTATE PLANNING SEMINAR
AT NATIONAL BUSINESS INSTITUTE

(Philadelphia, PA., December 4, 2009) – Stephen Frishberg, a partner at the law firm of Deeb Petrakis Blum & Murphy PC, was co-presenter of the November 18, 2009 National Business Institute (NBI) seminar on Drafting Effective Wills and Trusts. The seminar advised attorneys, accountants, trust officers and paralegals on how to help clients meet their estate planning needs. The Seminar was held at the Crowne Plaza in Philadelphia.

Mr. Frishberg spoke to NBI members about both the strategic and ethical use of estate planning tools, such as living trusts and powers of attorney, and when they should be employed. He also discussed basic tax considerations and what needs to be examined when choosing an appropriate tax plan.

Mr. Frishberg practices in the areas of estate planning, estate administration, corporate, real estate and tax. He also is a certified public accountant. Mr. Frishberg has lectured to the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Philadelphia Estate Planning Council on his areas of expertise. Mr. Frishberg is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, The Florida Bar and the District of Columbia Bar.
